Animal Control requires us to keep a copy of your dog’s rabies certificate on file. This is a legal document signed by your veterinarian. A copy or your receipt or your dog’s rabies tag is not valid to meet this county requirement.

Monthly flea control is required continuously for attendance at daycare. Flea collars are not allowed! It is your responsibility to keep your dog parasite free. Keeping your dog on an effective flea control program (Frontline, Advantage, Revolution, not a grocery store product) virtually eliminates the risk of him or her picking up fleas anywhere – including your yard, the vet’s office, the dog park and especially here at doggy day care. ABOUT DAYCARE

Your dog is going to have LOTS of fun! While at daycare, your dog will get slobbered on, dirty from rolling around outside in the grass, possibly wet from the rain, sprinklers or swimming pools. We will do our best to dry them, spray with waterless shampoo and a quick brush out if necessary sometime in the late afternoon. Please keep a towel or blanket in your car for these wet times.

If your dog is vomiting or has diarrhea or is limping or hurt, please do not bring them to daycare unless prior arrangements have been made.

Your dog must be 4 months of age or older, and must be spayed or neutered by 6 months of age.

Please bring your dog into the daycare on a leash or in a crate and all dogs must have a collar on. For safety reasons, no choke collars, gentle leaders, prong collars, flea collars or harnesses are allowed on your dog while playing.

Reservations for daycare are requested in advance. We may fill to capacity during the day, so it is recommended you call at least one day in advance. We may take drop offs if there is space available. If your dog is not attending on a scheduled day, please call so other dogs can make a reservation.

Half days are considered 4 hours or less. Anything over 4 hours is considered a full day.

You cannot combine pre paid daycare packages with boarding.

All daycare services are pre-paid. We accept Cash, Check, Visa and Mastercard only. You may choose to buy one of our discounted packages, or you can pay as you go. (Bounced checks will be assessed an additional fee of $25.00).
